

Building a Positive Reputation

Team Lead Junior

Updated 12-9-15

Defining Reputations!

- * What is a reputation? Brainstorm as a class.

Some possible ideas:

Everything you say or do

What people remember about you

What you are known for

Your words

Your actions

Your talents and interests

Discussing Reputations

Morning Meeting / Group Activity Discussion

- * How can you create a positive reputation for yourself?

Show your best self,
even when no one's looking.

Follow the rules,
even if you don't agree with them.

Be a good friend
in person and online.

Discussing Reputations

- * Think in your head: What kind of reputation have you made based on the things you say and do?
- * How do you want people to remember you? What do you want to be remembered for?

You are in control of your own reputation.

You have the power to change it at all times.

It takes effort and practice to make the reputation you want.

In the end, it is worth all the work and the effort!

Thinking about Reputations!

- 1) Write positive words about what kind of academic or behavior reputation you want.
- 2) Think about what YOU can do to get that reputation.

I want to be

I can get there by

I want to be

I can get there by

I want to be

I can get there by

I want to be

I can get there by

